

A stylized illustration of a white hand dropping a white ballot into a grey ballot box. The entire scene is enclosed within a dark brown oval frame. The background is a solid teal color.

CHAPTER-2

WHAT IS DEMOCRACY?

WHY DEMOCRACY?

WORKSHEET

CLASS - IX

WORKSHEET

- ◉ What is representative democracy?
- ◉ Which is the most common form of democracy in today's world?
- ◉ Why are quality decisions a possibility in a democracy?
- ◉ Whose rule is democracy considered to be ?
- ◉ With whom does the final decision-making power rest in a democracy?
- ◉ Under which form of govt political equality given importance ?
- ◉ In spite of having a vast social diversity , what keeps the people of India together?

-
- What should be done in a democracy if mistakes are committed?
 - When do we say that elections are fair?
 - ‘In a democracy, the majority of the people rule through their elected representatives.’ Give reason?
 - How does democracy in a country enhance the dignity of an individual? State 3 points ?
 - What is referendum?
 - When did the World Trade Organisation set up ?
 - Which form of govt is considered non-democratic?
 - By whom was the ‘Legal Framework Order’ issued in Pakistan?

- After how many years does Mexico hold elections for electing its President?
- Name two countries where free & fair elections held?
- Define democracy? State merits and demerits of democracy?
- How election in India are different from Mexico ?
- 'Democracy is all about political competition and power play. There is no scope for mortality .' Justify the statement?
- Explain the major features of Democracy?

- Why is democracy called a ‘Government by discussion’?
- ‘Democracy is better than the form of govt because it allows us to correct its own mistakes’. Explain ?
- Distinguish between Democratic and Non - Democratic Govt ?
- Distinguish between Democracy and Good Democracy?

Thank You